MODERN LIFE TOO RAPID

Bishop Potter spoke to a meeting of men in the West Side Auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association, in New York, on Saturday afternoon. The Bishop enlarged upon the social contact in the association, and said: "There is no social problem more grave than the tendency toward cities. In the founding of the republic we had deliberation and reflection in the long winter evenings with opportunities for reading and study and thought. Men were close to the land. The tendency of modern life to cities is too great a pace."
"If a young man is not on the run down town most business houses have no use for him. In the vulgar, but most expressive phrase he must 'get a move on himself.' If he can't get a move he must get out. There is danger that under a communal life like ours a young man under orders will lose possession of himself finally. The drive threatens to take possession of us. In the past a man would first of all get a possession of himself to have some hours in the business days to think over his blunders and his sins. It is necessary that you have time to place yourself, that you shall be God's man, owning yourself when the day is done as you did when it began."
"This is a time of great material prosperity for the country. There is a great deal of money to be got, so there is a great deal of lawlessness in the spending of it. There is a great multitude of people absorbed in the passion for display, the lust of personal expenditure. Watch it in its beginnings. Remember that whatever any fool of a girl may tell you about some expenditure that pleases her any honest woman will respect you for carrying an honest personal simplicity."
The Bishop told a story of Tweed, "a fine type," he said, "of an article of which I am sorry to say we have produced more since his time." He told the story of the finding of a diamond in the mayor's office, which, at first, no one claimed until Tweed pushed up his waistcoat and exclaimed: "O, yes; it's from my suspender button."

HANGED IN A CHURCH.—John Kolkman hanged himself in the basement of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in St. Louis, Monday night. His widowed mother was worshipping in the edifice at the time.
The only known cause for the tragedy is disappointment over the fact that Kolkman failed in his studies for the priesthood, pursued in St. Francis Solanus College, at Quincy, Ill., and in the Franciscan College at Teuopolis, Ill.
In the church large crowds had assembled to participate in the customary Christmas Eve celebration, the crib at Bethlehem being produced in the miniature. The sexton, Alfred Zier, noted that the temperature of the auditorium was getting low, proceeded to the basement to replenish the furnace and found the body of Kolkman hanging from a rafter. It was turned over to the police.

OPERATION FOR RICH CHILD.—Four-year-old Lottie Armour, daughter of Mrs. J. Oden Armour, and heir to the millions of her grandfather, John D. Armour, will undergo an operation for hip disease, which has thus far prevented her from walking. An X-ray examination showed that her thigh bones fail to reach the sockets. Dr. John Kidron will give the child an anesthetic, and while she is unconscious her delicate limbs will be forced back into perfect articulation, and will then be secured by a heavy plaster cast, which she will wear, if possible, for six months.

SET HIS WIFE ON HOT STOVE.—Because he could not have the last word in a dispute with his wife with regard to the purchase of presents for Christmas, Otto Heink, who lives in Omaha, pulled his wife out of bed and seated her on a hot stove Thursday night, and held her there until she was terribly burned. He would not send for a doctor, and would not allow the neighbors to minister to the suffering woman. When the facts were learned he was arrested.

Now is the time when cough and lung troubles prove rapidly fatal. The only harm less remedy that produces immediate results is One Minute Cough Cure. It is very pleasant to take and can be relied upon to quickly cure coughs, colds and all lung diseases. It will prevent consumption.

Come to this great Special Sale. It will pay you if you have to travel 100 miles. An opportunity like this never comes again. Remember, no postponement. To show what gigantic bargains will be offered, a few prices are mentioned, and there are thousands of different bargains which for want of space we cannot mention here.
Just think of the following proposition, and remember that all goods priced in this document can be brought back at any time during the sale.
